About this property

Step into the timeless charm of our beautifully preserved heritage Wada in the heart of Old Nashik, where teakwood architecture, stone craftsmanship, and generations of history create an unforgettable stay. This authentic homestay features a serene Mahadev temple at its center, a lovingly curated collection of antiques that reflects the region's rich heritage, and a warm, peaceful atmosphere that blends tradition with modern comfort. Experience the true essence of old-world hospitality while staying close to the city's cultural attractions. As a protected heritage property, we kindly request guests to treat the space with care and respect. Parking guidance will be shared after booking, with nearby parking options available for your convenience.
